

Welcome

Greetings,

Congratulations. You are about to begin an adventure. One that will leave you, at the end, with a full understanding of Remote Viewing, ready to launch on your own exploration of the full potential of your mind.

Your teachers are the founders of modern remote viewing, and the experiences you will undergo will walk you through contact with the nonlocal aspect of your consciousness. These are the techniques that were used by the Army and the CIA at their SRI laboratory and in Fort Meade, Maryland. These are the techniques that found sunken ships, and Cleopatra's palace. These are the techniques that have solved crimes. This is what science knows about Remote Viewing.

Your journey begins with 10 video presentations describing how Remote Viewing developed, how it works, and what has been done with it. You will see how people just like you, mastered the discipline of opening to nonlocal consciousness, and put it to practical use.

After you have gone through the videos, you are ready to begin your own experiences in this realm of consciousness. The experiential programs, teach you the tools you need to become accomplished, and walks you through them. The Remote Viewing program teaches you the protocols, taking you step-by-step through the different ways of doing Remote Viewing sessions. These programs can be used again and again, to refresh you, or refocus you, whenever you feel the need. The Meditation for Modern Minds, and Harmonic Healing programs will give you skills that will transform your life, literally improving the structure of your brain and showing you a pathway into the mind-body realm that produces the placebo response.

If you commit yourself to following these techniques you will change your life.

How to use the Gold Standard Course.

Begin this course by reading Opening to the Infinite. Everything is built around the book, so that using its index, you can easily reference the various steps and processes of opening to the nonlocal aspect of your consciousness. After you have read the book, watch the videos.

The videos are meant to be shown on your computer monitor, or a television screen. They constitute the faculty of the course.

The Remote Viewing programs guide you through actual sessions, using all the different protocols. You will want to be sitting at a table or desk, so that you can write down the session data when you are Remote Viewing. These same instructions are found in the book. Use the audio program to guide yourself, until you learn the protocols and are comfortable doing them on your own.

The other audio programs, Meditation for Modern Minds, Before the Beginning, Harmonic Healing, and the bonus track, 2050 should be used when you can lie down in a dimly lit room. These are all inward experiences, for use in quiet rooms. You might want to use headphones.

The experiences run about 20 minutes each.

The fifth program, Keeping Records, is for your computer and will provide you with the record forms for your Remote Viewing sessions.

Once again, congratulations for joining the Remote Viewing community, and for beginning your own transformation.

Let's get started!

Stephan A. Schwartz

Chapter 1

The Stanford Research Institute Years (SRI)

The Stanford Research Institute Years
Hal Puthoff, PhD

In this highly revealing speech by physicist Hal Puthoff, you will learn the history of the SRI years that were shrouded in mystery for decades. Puthoff unveils what the US government was hiding and discusses what they learned from doing this research.

Chapter 2

Remote Viewing Joins the Army

Remote Viewing Joins the Army
Major Paul Smith, USA (Ret.)

Former Stargate remote viewer, Paul Smith describes how Remote Viewing describes the secret facility at Fort Meade, Maryland, where the government's Remote spying program was conducted. He discusses secret ops, and shows material from the actual sessions.

Chapter 3

Mind Rover

Mind Rover: Remote Viewing For Archaeological Discovery
Stephan A. Schwartz

Stephan Schwartz discloses the meticulous and objective science of using Remote Viewing for archaeological discovery. By using drawings and specific targets, remote viewers have been able to detect and describe with accuracy archaeological sites and artifacts dating back thousands of years and thought to have been lost forever.

From the Lighthouse of Pharaohs to Cleopatra's palace, this application of Remote Viewing is as fascinating as it is mind blowing.

Chapter 4

The Biosphere & Sidereal Time

The Biosphere & Sidereal Time
James Spottiswoode

James Spottiswoode whose studies of the earth's magnetosphere revealed one of the most powerful influences affecting Remote Viewing performance. This secret still known only to a few in the Remote Viewing world, gives you an edge when high performance is really needed.

Chapter 5

Remote Viewing and Hemi-Sync

Remote Viewing and Hemi-Sync
Skip Atwater

Skip Atwater, another member of the Stargate team describes how he took military Remote Viewing skills from Fort Meade to the Monroe Institute, whose founder Robert Monroe created the hemi-synch sounds that are the basis for the Monroe Program.

Chapter 6

From Remote Viewing Onward

From Remote Viewing Onward
Russell Targ

Researcher Russell Targ discusses the importance of Remote Viewing and the path it will take from now on. He describes the implications of his research and how these findings will allow Remote Viewing to expand your awareness to maintain the accuracy of the experience while increasing the distance of the target.

Chapter 7

Remote Viewing and Dreams

Remote Viewing and Dreams
Dale Graff

Dale Graff , former CIA contract monitor for the SRI program, reveals his unique technique for combining Remote Viewing with dreaming.

Chapter 8

Remote Viewing as a Tool for Self-actualization

Remote Viewing as a Tool for Self-Actualization
Henry Reed, PhD

Psychologist Henry Reed takes the dreamwork a step further showing you an ancient mystery school technique that you can use for self-actualization. He describes in detail how to use this timeless shamanic path.

Edgar Cayce and Remote Viewing
Edgar Evans Cayce

Edgar Cayce was arguably the most gifted Remote Viewer in history. His medical diagnoses at a distance are legendary. He is the father of Holistic Medicine. And this presentation by his son, Edgar Evans, is the only time he has ever discussed his father's work in this way. This is a unique historic record.

Chapter 9

Experiences From My Past, Paths to The Future

Experiences from My Past, Paths to the Future
Ingo Swann

This presentation is also now historic. Ingo Swann died in early 2013, and this presentation is the only time he spoke publicly about his experiences, how he thought about Remote Viewing, and the techniques that he developed. How he thought Remote Viewing would evolve.

Chapter 10

The Power of Remote Viewing

The Power of Remote Viewing
Stephan A Schwartz

Stephan Schwartz describes the rapid growth of Remote Viewing from a laboratory science experiment, to an international movement, and what this important trend tells about the future of human culture. In a compelling presentation, Schwartz describes how Remote Viewing is fast becoming a form of western mental yoga where the approach to the powers of the mind are both analytical and experiential.

And how, by practicing the techniques of the Gold Standard Course you will open new vistas in your mind, experience self-actualization, and have an effect on your world.

Chapter 11

Before The Beginning

Before the Beginning is an adaptation of laboratory visualization techniques, combined with a very specific form of intention remote viewing. This experience takes you back to the moment when you decided to be you, before you were incarnated, before you were in your body. You can talk to yourself at that moment, and gain insight into the purpose of your life. Why are you here? What you want your life to be about? What should you be doing?

Chapter 12

Harmonic Healing

Harmonic Healing is a special technique adapted from both the remote viewing and therapeutic intention research. It takes you through an experience in which you stimulate your own immune system, exercising psycho-physical self-regulation, and bringing self-healing to your body.

Chapter 13

Meditation for Modern Minds

Among many other benefits, meditation teaches you intentioned focus. And the success of opening to the transcendental part of yourself is strongly affected by your ability to focus. Regular practice of meditation has also been scientifically proven to increase the centers of intelligence in your brain, to lower blood pressure, make you sleep better, feel less stressed and much more. Many people find the ancient techniques of meditation difficult, couched as they are in specific religious traditions. And these traditional methods were developed in an age very different to today's fast-paced rhythm. Meditation for Modern Minds, requires no specific religious belief, but can be used by in conjunction with any religious belief. This program, instead is based on the latest, and most advanced scientific research.

Chapter 14

Remote Viewing Instructions

Here you will find instructions on how to do remote viewings, giving you an overview of the various protocols so that they become easy and familiar to you.

Remote Viewing: Gold Standard Course

Materials Keeping Records

These are all the forms, paperwork and materials that you need to record your remote viewing session just as we did in the Mobius laboratory. You can print them out as you need them to maintain a complete record of your sessions.

Remote Viewing: Gold Standard Course

Bonus

2050

2050 is an experiment begun in 1978 in which men and women like yourself were asked to go forward in time to the year 2050, to describe what the world is like then. The form for recording your impressions can be found in the Keeping Records. If you would like to take part in this experiment fill out the session record and send it as a .pdf to 2050@stephanaschwartz.com
